

AC110 DIPLOMA IN ACCOUNTANCY (HONS)

PROGRAMME EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES (PEOs)

Accounting technicians or administrators who apply knowledge, understanding and skills in providing quality accounting services

Accounting technicians or administrators who integrate positive values, attitude, professionalism and social skills in engaging responsibly with societies and stakeholders.

Accounting technicians or administrators who adopt the role of a leader, team member and communicate effectively in providing scientific solutions to various accounting issues and problems

Accounting technicians or administrators who proactively acquire effective information management, lifelong learning, managerial and entrepreneurial skills

PROGRAMME EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES (PEOs)

PROGRAM LEARNING OUTCOMES (PLOs)

Apply knowledge of accounting in related industries (cognitive).

Display practical skills in accounting (psychomotor).

Demonstrate social skills and responsibilities (affective).

Demonstrate values, ethics and professionalism in engaging with society and stakeholders (affective).

Demonstrate communication skills and taking alternate roles as a leader and a team member of diverse team (affective).

Demonstrate problem solving and scientific skills related to accounting issues (cognitive).

Demonstrate information management and lifelong learning skill (affective)

Demonstrate managerial and entrepreneurial skills (affective)